Directions

From A92 follow directions signed for Exhibition Centre, this road is called 'The Parkway'. Continue until you reach the roundabout at the Exhibition Centre, turn right. Continue along this dual carriageway, through another roundabout (Army Barracks on left) until you come to a Pedestrian Crossing. The IKON building is situated on the left. To get into car park you mount pathment.

Because we are situated on the dual carriageway, you can only enter front car park from the direction going back into town, unless you (from A956 'King Street' - instead of turning right into 'Links Road' (as instructed above), you continue to roundabout and double back, then the directions from Army Barracks comes into play.
